My Dear Mr. Garrison -

Thank you for the pamphlet, & for y^e trouble you took in marking it.
I wish it were possible to get some of it into y^e paper, but I have standing at this moment in type not less than two papers full ^{for tomorrow.} I could get out a Tribune every day this week & not set another stick full. I shall try nevertheless to get some of that you send out on Friday. I think we shall carry this state, tho' barely.

And I know I shall not cry if we don't. Standing at a point where I am compelled to see & know how much imbecility there is in you, how much want of patriotism, how little principle in partisans, you wonder ~~would~~^{is} be to me how we even can triumph. Perhaps a new "playe" - a playe of a democratic success - is needed before we can stay you Lord. We wonder you slaves don't rise! Why we hav'nt manliness enough yet to "rise" ourselves.

Yrs. most truly
S. H. Gay
